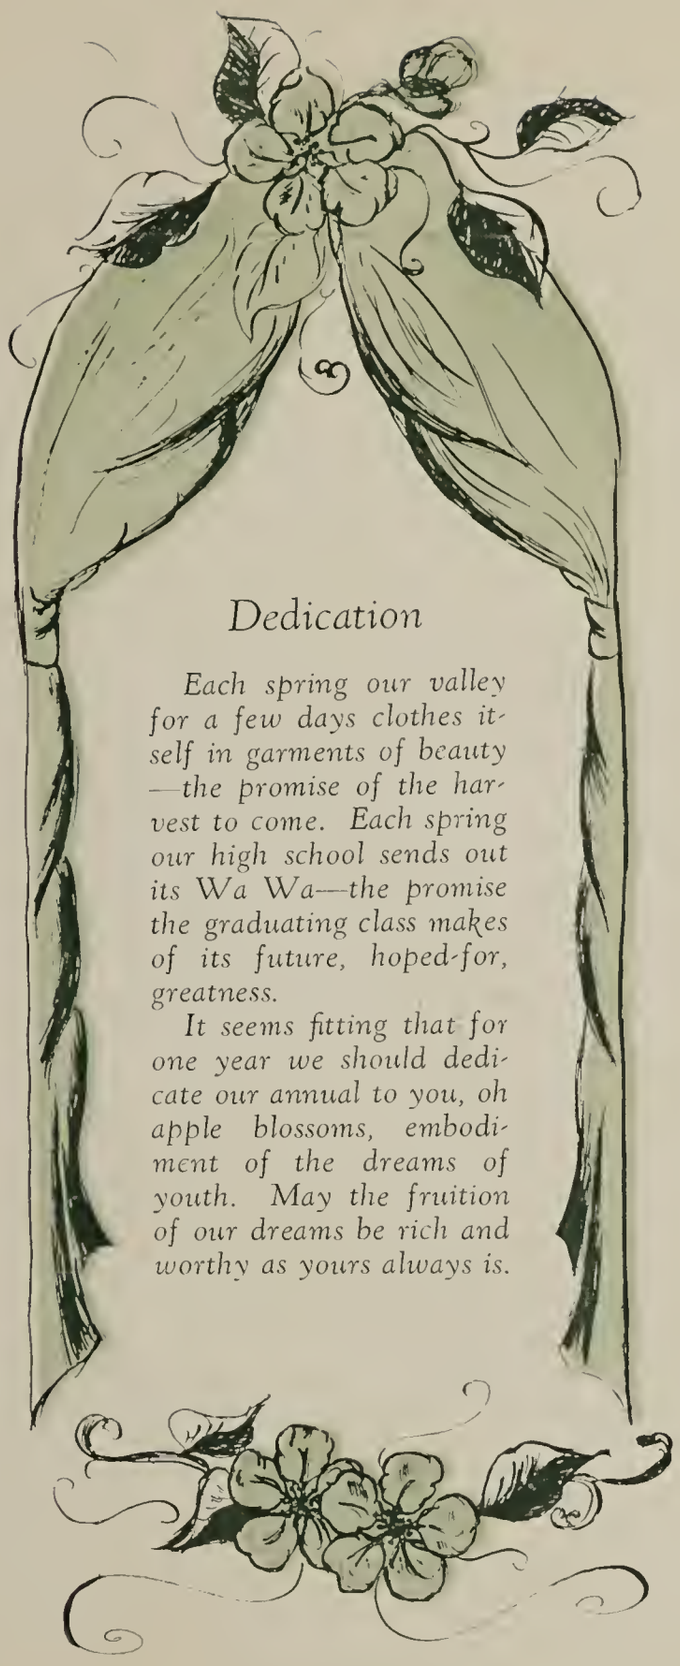
Spring

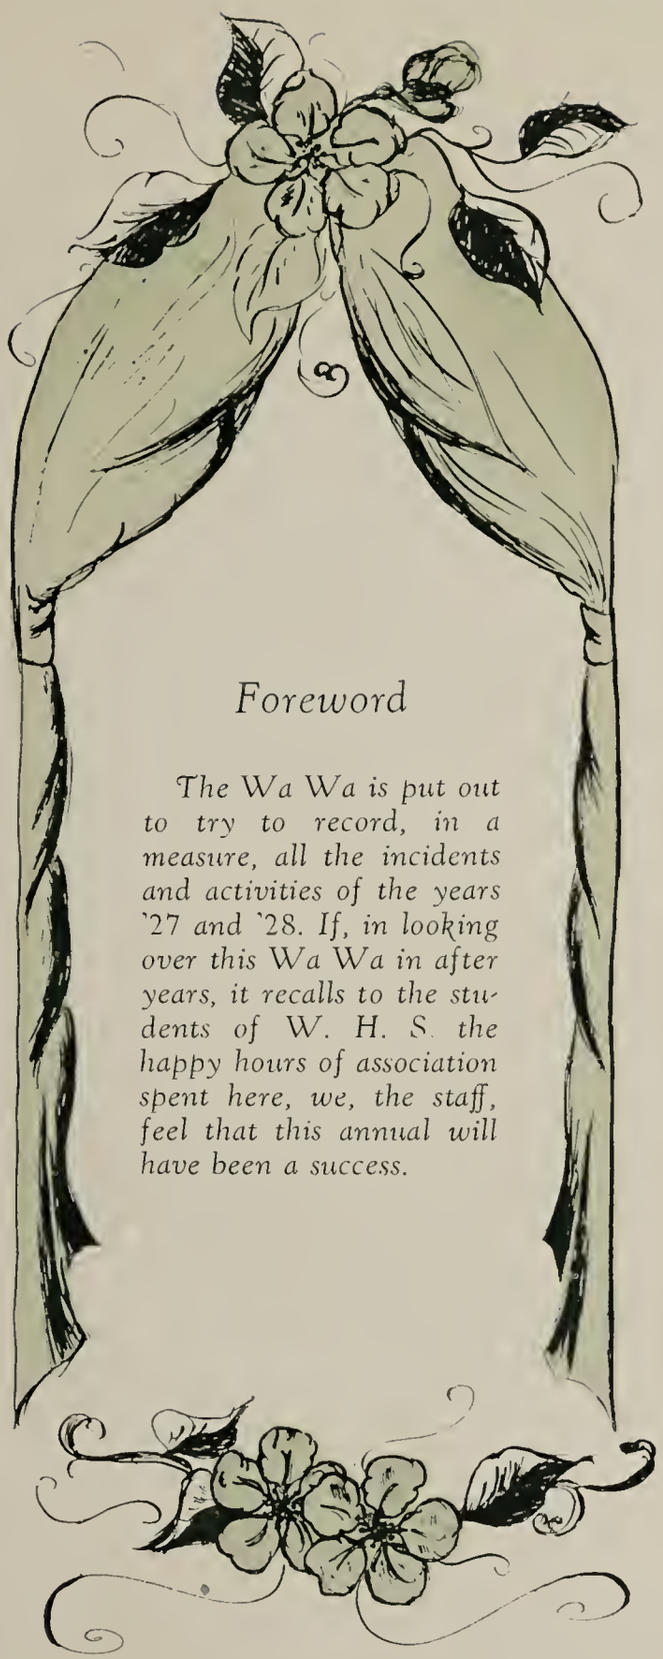


Dedication

Each spring our valley for a few days clothes itself in garments of beauty —the promise of the harvest to come. Each spring our high school sends out its Wa Wa—the promise the graduating class makes of its future, hoped-for, greatness.

It seems fitting that for one year we should dedicate our annual to you, oh apple blossoms, embodiment of the dreams of youth. May the fruition of our dreams be rich and worthy as yours always is.

Summer



Foreword

The Wa Wa is put out to try to record, in a measure, all the incidents and activities of the years '27 and '28. If, in looking over this Wa Wa in after years, it recalls to the students of W. H. S. the happy hours of association spent here, we, the staff, feel that this annual will have been a success.

Student Body Officers

Each semester the nominees for the student body officers are chosen by the Cabinet of the high school, three for each office, and these are voted on by the students. Burdette Sterling was President of the associated student body for the first semester. Don Black was chosen as Vice-President, and Frances Hadley, secretary-treasurer.

For the second semester, Don Black was President, Virgil Black, Vice-President, and Helen Sharp was Secretary-Treasurer.

Student control has been a great success under the leadership of these officers, and all the undertakings of the year have been well carried out.

Cabinet

The cabinet is made up of representatives from all of the clubs and classes of the school, and manages student affairs.

The officers of the student body preside and manage the cabinet and assisted by the representatives from the other organizations, make the rules governing student controlled assemblies.

It was the cabinet's privilege this year to draw up plans for the entertaining of two school delegations, Cashmere and Peshastin, who wished to inspect our school.

The student-controlled study halls co-operated well, and consequently student government was started earlier than usual.

Board of Social Control

OFFICERS

First Semester		Second Semester
Jack Culp	President	Glen Connelly
Arden Otto	Vice-President	Ruth Ryan
Beatrice McGough	Secretary	Esther Shadbolt

The Board of Social Control is the second representative body of the school. Its duty is to grant privileges and dates for all activities, and clubs. This board also nominates the three candidates for the Blossom Queen. There are about twenty representatives in this body. The officers of this Board are elected at the beginning of each semester.

Seniors

The senior class has had a very successful year. On December 16, the play "A Rose o' Plymouth Town," was presented and was a great success, and on the 21st the kid party was enjoyed. The class picnic was held at Lake Chelan on the 18th of May, baccalaureate exercises were on the 20th, and Class Night on the 22nd.

Instead of having an outside speaker for Commencement, the entire program was put on by the seniors. Speeches were given by students on the different phases of school life. Marguerite Mills, the salutatorian, spoke on "What We Have a Right to Expect From High School"; Don Black on Student Control; Margaret Mitchel on Scholarship; Lee Young on Activities; Calvin Phillips on Athletics; and Agnes Lindston, the valedictorian, on "What the Future Holds."

Every girl who enters Wenatchee High School automatically becomes a member of the Girls' Club. This is the largest, and one of the most active clubs in the school. It is divided into three departments, the Literary, Social Welfare, and Athletic, any one of which a girl can join when she enters W. H. S. The Literary department has charge of all programs and entertainments put on by the club; the Social Welfare send flowers to, and visit, the girls who are ill, and does welfare work at Christmas, Thanksgiving, and other special occasions; and the Athletic has charge of things connected with athletics.

The Girls' Club Cabinet is composed of the officers of the Club, the chairmen of the three departments with the faculty advisors of each, and a representative of each girls' club in Wenatchee High. The Cabinet meets every week, and has charge of all the work of the Club.

The Club has had an extremely successful year. Under the direction of the club, teas were given at the beginning of both semesters for the new incoming girls. The first semester of this year was devoted to cleaning and re-decorating the Girls' Rest Room. Style shows were given both semesters with helpful talks in regard to proper dress. The club also sponsored a "Back to School" day for all alumni, and put on an entertainment to raise money. The Hi-Jinks, as it was called, was very entertaining and successful. In the spring the girls were sent to survey the trees of Wenatchee at the request of the Chamber of Commerce.

Miss Jessie Warren, the advisor, has just taken over this work, and much of the success of the Club is due to her efforts.

MISS WARREN

Honor Society

The Honor Society is made up of those students who have achieved, and held a certain standard of scholarship in their school studies. The club's aim is to be an added incentive to students for making good grades in school work.

There are three awards given in connection with the Honor Society. The first, the one bar pin, is given when the Society scholarship standard is reached, the second, the two bar pin, is given when a second higher standard is reached, and the third, the torch, is given when a third high standard is reached. These awards are dependent upon sustained work as well as quality of work. Anyone attaining the scholarship standard automatically becomes a member of the Honor Society.

Apple Leaf

The Apple Leaf is the high school paper supported and managed by the students. It takes the form of a weekly publication, aiming to champion the best things in the high school and to represent all the activities.

The Apple Leaf is a time honored institution in Wenatchee High, as it is now in its tenth year of active service. Before this time it was called the High School Journal.

The student body at large is greatly indebted to the Apple Leaf for service rendered in helping them keep up with the many and varied activities of the school and welding the student body into a single unified group.

Wa Wa

In 1905 the first annual of the Wenatchee High School was published by the Junior class under the name of the Purple and Gold. It was dedicated to the Seniors. Mr. Cliff Godfrey, who is now a prominent business man of Wenatchee, was the first business manager.

At that time the high school was in the old Stevens School building. Later a new building was erected and in a few years an addition was added, forming our present high school.

The Purple and Gold was published for the purpose of recording all of the main events and activities in the school year. The book contained about fifty pages of advertisements. The cost was $125.00, and this was met by the advertisers.

Year by year the Wenatchee High School has grown and with it the annual, renamed the Wa Wa, meaning Much Talk. The high school as a whole helps to publish it instead of the Junior class. In days gone by it was considered a record for any business manager to sell twenty-five or thirty copies of the book; today, our aim is 800.

The staff for this year's Wa Wa is as follows:

Editor-in-Chief	Grace Sisler

Derby Club

The High School Derby Club was formed in 1924 by Vernon Van Leuven. It was originally called the Pep Club, but the name was later changed. The aim of the club is to promote general school enthusiasm for studies as well as athletics, and to be of assistance, both to the school and the community.

This year the Derby Club sponsored the Vodvil and with the proceeds finished paying for the grand piano which the Club presented to the school.

They are now going to undertake a new project, which has not yet been definitely decided upon.

P. K. Club

In 1926 the P. K. (Panther Kittens) Club was organized as a pep club whose duty was to re-establish the lost spirit in our school activities.

This year has been a very active one for the Club. An act was given for the Derby Club Vodvil; Wenatchee apples were distributed at the trains during National Apple Week; the football and basketball teams were entertained; pep assemblies were conducted; and several stunts were given at the basketball games.

Heinz Club

President ..... Grace Austin
Vice-President ..... Margaret Bradbury
Secretary and Treasurer ..... Doris Kenny
Cabinet ..... Josephine Weed
Board of Student Control ..... Viola Noonkester

The Heinz Club is composed of girls coming into the high school from out of town schools. Its purpose is to help the girls become better acquainted with the members and customs of our school, and to make them realize that they have a place in the Wenatchee High School. Miss Grace Wiester is the advisor. The club was organized in 1924.

It is mainly a social club for the new girls who are strange in our school. They had a party each semester of this year, and also sponsored a candy sale.

Cafeteria

The cafeteria class is held third and fourth periods every day. Credit is given to all girls who are enrolled. In this way the school is able to furnish a hot lunch to all students who must take lunch at school. A small charge is made on the lunches served. Miss Gladys Selleck again acted as supervisor of the cafeteria and deserves much credit for her work.

All girls who have taken Cafeteria are eligible for membership in the Cafeteria Club. Its purpose is to help pay for dishes and the necessary things needed in the cafeteria.

The officers of the club for '27-'28 are:

Speakers' Club

The Speakers' Club is a newly organized club which has a great future before it. It was organized in the early part of December, a staff of officers being elected to serve the rest of the semester. The purpose of this club is to promote and encourage speaking in the high school. To arouse the interest of students in the art of speaking is the main aim of the club. The students who wish to become members speak before the club members, who are judges. The winners each semester in the extemporaneous speech contest out of the four classes, and the members of the debate team, automatically become members. The Speakers' Club so far has attained a membership of twenty. The meetings, held every two weeks, are very interesting, and are the source of much help to the club members. Debates are held, parliamentary drill and other things which require a good deal of thinking and speaking ability, are practiced.

In February, four members of the Speakers' Club gave before the assembly short talks on the four great men whose birthdays come in that month—Washington, Lincoln, Edison and Lindbergh.

The club's work for the year gives a promising outlook for developing a large membership and some excellent speakers in the future.

Debate

The subject for the debates this year was "Resolved, That the President of the United States be elected for a single term of six years." On February 17, a dual debate was held with Yakima. Eleanor Cushing, Willie Eikenberry, and Paul Dull, supporting the affirmative, went to Yakima, and John Gilchrist, Gladys Vaughn and Roy Motteler upheld the negative here. We lost both of these, due to the inexperience of the team, but enough interest has been aroused in debate to consider having a debate class next year.

Extemporaneous Speeches

As a training for extemporaneous speaking, a series of contests have been held in the English classes both semesters of this year. The winners of each class were chosen and they contested against each other until four remained—one Freshman, Sophomore, Junior and Senior. These four gave extemporaneous talks before the assembly and the winner was chosen by judges.

The winner of the first semester's contest was Phyllis Martin, the Freshman contestant, and in the second semester Ralph Johnson, a Junior, came out victorious.

This year the club celebated the 32nd anniversary of the death of Dr. Jose Rizal, the great Filipino martyr, who opened the path of his countrymen towards greater political, economic and social advancements.

ROBERT MURRAY

Lyceum

Under the direction of Robert Murray, Lyceum manager for 1927-28, a very successful course was presented. On October 22, Lowell Thomas spoke on "With Laurence in Arabia and Allenby in Palestine." His address had to do with the conditions of the Holy Land and his personal experiences there during the World War, when he assisted General Thomas Laurence in his campaign against the Turks. This address was very interesting and instructive, as it brought to us different ideas and clearer understanding of conditions existing during the World War.

On December 15, the Lowell Patton Artists gave a delightful program consisting of every type of music from classical to popular. A sacred number, "The Life of Christ," giving a vivid picture of the Nativity, Crucifixion, and Resurrection was especially enjoyed.

Sam Grathwell spoke on "Chaotic China" on January 10. His speech concerned conditions now existing in China, and gave a good picture of the civil war going on there.

The fourth number was something decidedly different. This was the High School "Hi-Lights," put on by the students of W. H. S. Three one-act plays, "The Trysting Place," "Pierrot's Mother," and "The Maid Who Wouldn t be Proper," were presented, a dance number, a vocal trio, and selections by the orchestra completed the program. This was enjoyed a great deal by all those attending.

Strickland Gilliland, the noted American humorist, gave an interesting and highly amusing lecture on "North of the Ears," as the closing number of the Lyceum. His address was enjoyed by everyone, both old and young, who attended.

Sailor Maids

The musical comedy, "Sailor Maids," was presented by the music department March 23. The whole operetta was a great success, and the chorus work was exceedingly well done. All the principle characters were well suited to their parts and the solo selections were very well received by the audience.

The cast was as follows:

Cyrus Templeton, the light-house keeper.....Russell Jagers
Frances Marie, a "Sailor Maid," his daughter.....Frances Hadley
Jeannette Spencer, friend of Frances Marie's.....Ruth Ryan
Olga, the Swedish housekeeper.....Alverda Fewkes
Captain Dover, a retired sea captain.....Leonard Little
Edward, his son.....Verbal Hall
Gerald Kennedy, an ardent admirer of Frances Marie's.....Norman Fosdick
David Kern, a yachtsman.....George Sperline
Messenger .....Robert McGough

The aim of the Music Department is to give the students of the Wenatchee High School the opportunity to study music in school, and to organize the student musicians of the school that they may take part in assemblies and programs.

Music Department

This year several new courses have been added to the Music Department: The High School Band, History of Music, Appreciation of Music, Beginning Harmony, and Advanced Harmony.

The department has also been active in putting on programs for assemblies, Rotary Club, and so forth.

The Pep Band

The Pep Band, under the leadership of Miss Christy, was formed for the purpose of creating pep during football and basketball games. The band accompanied the team to Yakima, where it won much applause, both from the Wenatchee section and from Yakima. Rain or shine, the band was always on hand during the games, and a large amount of credit should be extended to them for their work.

The members of the band and the instruments they played were:

Flute—Lloyd Ajax

Clarinets—Gordon Bird, Wheeler Bowen, King Culp, Jack Culp, Ed Grosvenor, Harold Ragsdale, Elmer Ryan

Cornets—Bill Barrows, Frank Culp, Charles Conner, Carl Hamilton, Robert Lonergan, Hartsell Proffitt, Bob Palmquist

Dramatic Club

The Dramatic Club is made up of a body of students who have taken part in plays or have been admitted through tryouts for entrance. The club aims to foster and develop drama and the best dramatic talent in the school.

The activities of the Dramatic Club this year include the Dramatic Club play on April 13, presenting "Pierrot's Mother" for the Hi-Lights number of the Lyceum, "All on a Summer's Day" for the Derby Club Vaudeville and "The Exchange" for the Girls' Club Hi Jinks. They also held an initiation party on March 10 for the twenty-three members admitted during the February tryout.

The club holds business meetings every two weeks.

The Boomerang, a modern three-act comedy, was presented April 13 by the Dramatic Club.

A boomerang is a weapon used by certain savage tribes, which, when thrown, returns to the thrower if it misses the mark. The Boomerang in this case was a doctor's plan to cure a love-sick patient who thought he was ill. The plan missed its mark and "returned to the thrower"—the doctor—who fell in love with the nurse. Many amusing incidents occur, but all ends happily.

The play was very successful and a credit to both the Dramatic Club and the High School.

Owing to the Spring vacation and the lateness of the production, it was impossible to secure a picture of the cast before the Wa Wa went to press.

Senior Class Play

"A ROSE O' PLYMOUTH TOWN"

THE CAST

Miles Standish	Robert Murray
Garret Foster	Elmer Carriker
John Margeson	Lee Young
Philippe de la Noye	Don Black
Miriam Chillingsley	Helen McCarter
Resolute Story	Margaret Mitchell
Rose de la Noye	Avaloe Hensel
Barbara Standish	Helen Sharp

SYNOPSIS

The action of "A Rose o' Plymouth Town" centers around Rose de la Noye, who with her brother Philippe has left France for America to live with Captain Standish. Garret Foster, a dashing young Englishman, falls in love with Rose. As a result of a duel with Margeson over Rose, Foster is banished from the colony, and in disguise he stays and fights for America. Through circumstances, Margeson receives credit due Foster for leadership in saving the colony from the Indians. Rose discovers the error, and chooses the better man.

This play, which was presented by the senior class on December 16, was very well acted, and greatly enjoyed by the students and others present.

Society

The Senior Kid party was held on December 21st. All the seniors came in the "kiddiest" clothes they could find and acted childish for a few hours. A fine program was put on for the kiddies, after which Santa Claus distributed gifts. The kids then adjourned to the gym, where games were played until time for the refeshments.

The Junior Prom of '27 was held on April 17 at the Columbia Hotel. The room and tables were beautifully decorated with spring flowers. A program consisting of speeches and selections from the "Student Prince" opera, sung by Bob Yerxa and Elizabeth Jones (Mrs. Parry) was given.

The seniors went to the head of Lake Chelan for their annual picnic. They left Wenatchee at 5:30, arriving at the lake about 7:00, and then went up the lake in a boat chartered for the occasion. They stayed at the head until evening, coming down the lake by moonlight.

Calendar

Sept. 9—800 students reluctantly straggled into their places this morning and were sentenced to nine months of hard labor.

Sept. 16—This morning a whole balcony of Freshmen chirped out lustily in the school fight song. Future opera singers.

Sept. 23—The old school has turned feline! About 20 promising young kittens went romping over in the P. K. initiation.

Sept. 24—We marched to triumph after a frolic with Roslyn—score was 14 to 7. Nobody hurt — not even Sterling's feelings.

Oct. 8—Lewis and Clark beat us 6 to 0. A hard battle was fought, several faces were stepped on, but no ambulance was called. Lewis and Clark congratulated us on our pep.

Oct. 14 — Poor Keller's tooth is gone—gone but not forgotten. And how. At football practice in a sudden spurt of energy.

Oct. 18—We sneaked up today for our report cards, and several hours later the whole school was in mourning.

Oct. 26 — Goody, goody, teacher has to study now at the W. E. A. Convention. Students are out on reprieve after good behavior.

Nov. 4—W. H. S. played hostess to a Cashmere delegation.

No. 5 — Battle-scarred but victorious, our Panthers returned from the Cashmere game with the score of 7 to 6.

Nov. 11—Had to go to school all morning but were tuned out to play for the afternoon.

Nov. 23 — There's nothing slow about the Freshmen. The Freshmen number of the Apple Leaf proved that. Phyllis Martin was editor.

Nov. 19 — Wenatchee played Everett. Result was 0-0, in our favor, according to us.

Nov. 24—We won over Whatcom 6-0. Leahy gurgled as per usual from the Old Oaken Bucket.

Dec. 2—Derby Club staged a very successful annual vaudeville. It was certainly fine.

Dec. 9—W. H. S. was favored with a great treat. John Griswald kindly consented to give us a radio program. He broadcasted, in his usual winning manner, a football game between the Gas Eaters and the Coal Burners. He is our future Webster. Doff your hats.

Dec. 10 — St-St-Sterling made a w-w-wonderful speech in assembly this morning. He showed marked signs of becoming a famous orator.

Dec. 16 — Senior Class play, "A Rose o' Plymouth Town," was presented and greatly enjoyed. Elmer Carriker showed what a passionate lover he could be.

Dec. 23-Jan. 3—Christmas vacation! Hot dawg! What did Santa Claus bring you?

Jan. 5—Girls' Club held their election. Dorothy Bowers was elected president.

Jan. 12—Don Black elected president of the student body for the next semester. Plans for a Senior High were announced.

Jan. 13—Purple W Club held their public initiation. Leahy, with a patient and long-suffering look on his face, emptied a bucket of water with a spoon. Keller sang "Beautiful Katy" with great gusto. Now I wonder why he sang that?

Jan. 22 — New semester began for those who survived the exams. Sterling said he's never been the same since.

Jan. 28—We defeated Cashmere in basketball there 35-24. The goat caused a small riot Feeling ran high and nearly resulted in a massacre.

Feb. 3—Rooters Club made its debut. Dick Gray was the official debutante, being head of the club.

Feb. 11—We defeated Ellensburg. But ah, lest you rejoice too much we lost to Cashmere. Now shed a tear.

Feb. 17—We debated with Yakima and lost. Yea, another tear.

Feb. 21—Charles Cooper entertained us with a saxophone solo on a sousaphone. The number was very deep for our simple minds.

Feb. 29—Tacky Day! and what a day. Some looked like they'd just escaped from Medical Lake; Lake; others sure proved Darwin was right.

Mar. 2—Wenatchee beat Cashmere in the big scramble for district champs. We think we're pretty good, all right.

Mar. 7—Had a big assembly with Cashmere as our guests. The boys were presented with new paper suits which fascinated Detts. After this we all bustled importantly down to the train to see them off.

Mar. 9—Hi Lights given. This was enjoyed by all. Don Black invested in a couple of tickets (for his mother and himself?).

Mar. 14—Leona Watson chosen Apple Blossom Queen. Rotary Club inspects high school and amuses itself watching us toil.

Mar. 23—Operatta given. Bus Fosdick struts his Romeo stuff.

Mar. 29—Girls' Club captains herd their allotted girls around in a tree inspection tour.

April 4, 5, 6—Pardoned for 3 days' vacation by His Majesty. This gave us time to catch up on our history outlines.

April 13—Dramatic Club play given. Lee Young was in clover as he had to make love.

April 27-28—Apple Blossom Festival. For two days we forgot our lessons and romped with the rest of them.

May 11—Junior Prom held. We were all on our best behavior.

May 18—Senior picnic held at Lake Chelan. Fats wanted to show his many power by swimming it, but we would not let him.

May 21—The last wailing and gnashing of teeth—exams.

May 22—Class day. Girls all had new dresses and the boys sported new ties.

May 24—Seniors bid goodbye to old school.

Point System

The Point System was organized to prevent a student from holding more offices than he could fill, and still keep his grades passing; also to encourage students to hold offices, to be in social activities, and on class and school committees. This system went into effect the second semester of the 1926-27 school year.

The committee that manages this is now composed of five members, three students, two faculty members. The committee for this year was as follows:

Aileen Tyrell
Wendell Oatey
Hazel Bloom
Mrs. Bryan Johnson
Miss Blanche Smith

Student Loan Committee

Students	Faculty
Calvin Phillips	Mrs. Johnson, Chairman
Lila Cranmer	Miss Wiester
Frank Culp	Miss Schrock
	Mr. Buckman

The Student Loan Fund was created four years ago by subscription among the student body and faculty. It was established as an emergency fund to help students, buy books and other school necessities.

Any student wishing a loan may apply to the committee, which consists of three students and four of the faculty appointed by Mr. Pegg. The note must be signed by the parent, or guardian, of the student.

The Student Loan, although it is seldom in the spotlight and not generally known of throughout the community, is one of the most vital of the student activities.

Athletics

BENJAMIN HUMPHREY MOODHE

Athletics

Athletics have been very successful this year in W. H. S. In football, we lost only one game. We received the District Championship in both boys' and girls' basketball, and the track team of '27 won the State Championship for the fourth consecutive time.

Mr. Paul K. Benjamin was the football and basketball coach, and Carl Buckman assisted him. Mr. Moodhe coached the track team. Much of the success of these teams is due to the excellent work of the coaches.

Jack Patrick, as captain of the football squad, led it through a very successful season. Virgil Black was captain of the championship boys' basketball team, and Virginia Brown of the girls'. Jack Mooberry captained the '27 track team.

Football

The 1927 football season was one of the best Wenatchee High School has had for some time. Out of the eight games played, the Panthers won five, tied two, and lost one, scoring a total of 104 to their opponents' 19 tallies.

The team went through the season, headed by Captain Patrick, in good spirit. There were not many hard handicaps to be overcome. Earl Hickcox was injured in the first game and was out for a short time. Lee Thulean, Captain-elect for 1928, had a bad ankle and then got the mumps, and was out for two weeks. Several good players from this year's team will graduate, but if next year's team is as full of fight and spirit as this year's, Wenatchee High School will have another eleven to be proud of.

Wenatchee 14—Roslyn 7

Having only two weeks of practice, and not being in very good shape, the Panthers defeated Roslyn 14 to 7 in the first game of the season. At the end of the first half Roslyn led 7 to 0, but Wenatchee came back with renewed fight and made two touchdowns.

Wenatchee 0—Lewis and Clark 6

Although the W. H. S. gridders lost to Lewis and Clark 6 to 0, they out-fought and out-played their opponents in everything except punting. The Tigers weighed ten pounds more to the man, but if it were not for a fluke in the second quarter the locals might have held their heavier opponents to a scoreless tie. The students showed real school spirit, giving the boys the heart they needed.

Wenatchee 40—Ellensburg 0

The Wenatchee team defeated Ellensburg in a one sided game, the score being 40 to 0. Touchdowns were made by Black, Sterling and Jack Culp. During the last quarter, after a safe lead was obtained, Coach Benjamin sent in some of the second team men.

Wenatchee 0—Yakima 0

In one of the hardest and cleanest games ever played on the Yakima field, the Purple and Gold warriors held their old rivals to a scoreless tie. The two rooting sections had some real competition in their bands and cheering. Earl Hickcox returned to his former position as tackle after recovering from injuries received in the Roslyn game at the first of the season.

Wenatchee 37—Chelan 0

Chelan came down determined to win, but returned home with the small end of a 37 to 0 score. Chelan threatened Wenatchee's goal only once, that in the last quarter, when they were on Wenatchee's eight-yard line. To save his first team men for the Cashmere game, Coach Benjamin used a number of his second string men.

Wenatchee 7—Cashmere 6

In an attempt to beat the Panthers, the Cashmere team played a better brand of football than in previous games, but all was in vain, for the W. H. S. players walked off the field with the long end of the score, 7 to 6. The night before the game there was a slight rain, making the field a little damp. The line did not work well together, letting the Orange and Black backs through for gains. Both teams made their touch-downs on passes; Wenatchee's, Patrick to Bob Culp, and Cashmere's, Moses to Boyles.

Wenatchee 0—Everett 0

Wenatchee held Everett to a scoreless tie in the last game of the season at home. This was the lowest score that Wenatchee has held the Coast team to since 1910, when they were victorious. For Wenatchee's advantage the muddy field was covered with sawdust. This was the best and most exciting game of the season, but there occurred several penalties. Everett came over here confident of winning by a large score, but returned home disappointed.

Wenatchee 6—Whatcom 0

To win from Whatcom and end the 1927 season successfully, was the determination of the boys who made the trip to Bellingham. The team carried out its expectations. Wenatchee scored in the third quarter when the line blocked a punt and Bob Culp fell on the ball. Although the Redskins were used to playing in a muddy and slippery field, the Panthers would not be treed. Both teams fumbled a number of times, but Wenatchee followed the ball closely and recovered more than Whatcom. The boys from Bellingham threatened to score when they blocked Patrick's punt and recovered the ball on the eight-yard line.

Wenatchee 0—Entiat 19

As a reward for faithfully turning out, the B squad was given a chance to play Entiat there, October 28, and lost 19 to 0. The Entiat team began a series of passes in the last half which the third team could not withstand because of a weak backfield on defense.

Purple "W" Club

The Purple "W" Club was first organized in 1921 by a group of lettermen of the four major sports, football, basketball, baseball and track. A boy who has earned a letter in any one of these sports is eligible to become a member of this club.

The club polices the campus on Clean-up Day and the fences at the football games. It also helps keep order in fire drills. The members marched as a group at the head of the Apple Blossom Parade last spring.

Lincoln Newell, track, was admitted to membership last spring, Lee Thulean, Bob Culp, Parker Holden, Eddie Koch, Lawrence Keller, Lawrence Leahy and Vernon Montieth at the end of the football season, and Russell Ainsworth, basketball, this spring.

Boys' Basketball

WENATCHEE 46—MANSON 11

The first game of the season was a walkaway for the local quintet. An entirely new team took the floor at the beginning of the third quarter.

WENATCHEE 23—LEAVENWORTH 14

The Purple and Gold boys lost themselves on the large Leavenworth floor, but found themselves in time to win the game 23 to 14.

WENATCHEE 14—ENTIAT 12

In a fast and furious game the Panthers led Entiat by a one point margin most of the time, and won by a mere two points. Virgil Black made the much needed points right before the whistle blew.

WENATCHEE 29—ALUMNI 20

The once high school players were unable to break through the defense of the more practiced team of the high school and were defeated 20 to 29.

WENATCHEE 28—HAS-BEENS 37

The "Has-Beens" of long ago were able to defeat the younger generation, but only by fighting right from the star. The team of older men that took the floor at first were all around six feet in height, the high school boys looking like dwarfs. The college graduates were in the lead most of the time, and ended with 37 to 28.

WENATCHEE 30—MANSON 11

The second Manson game played up there was an easy victory for the locals. Some of the regulars didn't play, being saved for the Waterville game the next night. The locals won 30 to 11.

Wenatchee 42—Waterville 17

The Douglas County Champions came down with high hopes, but went back home badly beaten by a score of 42 to 17. The playing was slow at times and uneven.

Wenatchee 35—Cashmere 24

For the first time in four years Wenatchee beat Cashmere on their own floor 35 to 24. The game was clean and hard fought, while both teams played a good brand of ball.

Wenatchee 31—Leavenworth 27

In a rather rough game the Purple and Gold team defeated the Leavenworth team in their return game here, 31 to 27. The game was fast for both teams.

Wenatchee 14—Waterville 13

The Waterville boys were harder to beat on their own floor, and the local boys won only by one point. The game was delayed by the late arrival of Wenatchee at their destination.

Wenatchee 17—Cashmere 21

The return game with Cashmere proved disastrous to the record of the Panthers. Cashmere started out with defensive ball in the first quarter and checked the local boys so closely that they were in dangerous territory from the start. Cashmere won 21 to 17.

Wenatchee 23—Ellensburg 20

The Panthers won a clean, fast, and well refereed game from Ellensburg there the night after their defeat at the hands of Cashmere.

Wenatchee 38—Entiat 9

The Wenatchee players gave Entiat a 38 to 9 drubbing in a one sided game. The Entiat boys rallied and held their opponents to a one point lead at the beginning of the third quarter, but to no avail.

Wenatchee 20—Ellensburg 19

The fast Ellensburg hoop tossers were defeated in one of the most exciting games of the season in the return game here. The game started out at a fast speed, and continued so until the last whistle blew and Wenatchee won.

In the county tournament which was held at Cashmere February 24 and 25, Wenatchee defeated Dryden and Entiat, but were defeated by Cashmere 19 to 11, making the Black and Orange team the county champions. In the North Central District tournament, however, we came out victorious, and represented this section at the state tournament at Seattle, held on March 18, 19 and 20. The Panthers placed seventh there, winning two games, one from Bremerton 23 to 21, the other from Anacortes 20 to 10, and losing two games, one to Yakima 33 to 21, the other to Everett 22 to 13. Patrick and Sterling were sick, and were not able to play their best, which kept the team from doing better. Wenatchee was one of the five Eastern cities among the first eight teams of Washington. Captain Virgil Black, playing his best brand of basketball here, was named as a forward on the second "All State" team. "Virg" was the only Panther to be picked for either team.

Boys' Track

Wenatchee's fourth successful track season has gone down in history. W. H. S. won all five of her inter-school meets, defeating Yakima in a dual meet, taking the county, district, and state meets, and the non-lettermen ran away from Cashmere in an easy way.

The first meet was the usual inter-class one held April 6. The seniors won the meet with 73½ points. The time for some of the events was good in spite of the cold and damp weather. Next the non-lettermen of W. H. S. had a dual meet with Cashmere's track squad, defeating them by a large score. The beginners took the lead at first and held it throughout the meet.

The Panthers defeated Yakima in the first dual meet of the season by 72 to 50. This was the first time a W. H. S. athletic team ever triumphed over this rival. Wenatchee tracksters took an early lead and held it all the way through, thus avenging the one point defeat there in 1926.

At the Chelan County track meet at the Recreation Park on May 7, we won with 66 points, more than half the total points. Chelan was second with 10, and Entiat fourth with 8 points. The meet was run in the morning, as part of the Apple Blossom Festival. Wenatchee won 8 of the 14 firsts, while the Chelan boys took 4.

The locals won the North-Central district meet on May 14 by taking 56 points and qualifying eight men for the state meet. Babe Peterson, Wenatchee, was high point man, with 19½ points. He broke his old broad jump record and his former discus record, and McNeil broke his high jump record by going over the bar at six feet and one-quarter inch.

The Panther track team won the State Interscholastic Meet at Pullman on May 20-21 with 17 points, taking two firsts, one second, one third and two fourths. The track was wet, making the races slower than they would have been on a dry track There was a crowd of 3,000 out to see the meet. Captain Mooberry made 8 points, winning the 220 and placing second in the 100. McNeil, first place in the high jump, set a new record of six feet and five-eighths inches. Peterson, making his fourth journey to the state meet, took third in the discus and fourth in the shot. Newell surprised all the Wenatchee fans by placing fourth in the half mile.

Taking the state meet for four consecutive years was a thing never before accomplished in Washington by any high school. W. H. S. should be proud of her track team and support it better in future years. With a coach like Mr. Moodhe, future track teams of Wenatchee will be good ones. The Panthers will have three lettermen back for this year's track, and although there may not be any records broken, they will be sure winners.

Boys' Swimming Club

The Boys' Swimming Club consists of fifteen members, and meets twice a week at the Y. M. C. A. tank. The first purpose of this organization is to train for swimming and, secondly, to have meets with outside schools. A boy has to belong to the local "Y" to join this club. Swimming is not a recognized major sport in the Wenatchee High School, but hopes to be in the future.

Preparations for a triangular meet with North Central and Lewis and Clark, to be held in Spokane, are being made. We hope to have a return meet near the end of the term with North Central at the Natatorium, if the weather is warm. The team cannot have meets here because there is no place to hold them.

Officers of the club are:

President ..... James Kane
Secretary and Treasurer ..... Robert Trumble
Cabinet ..... Walter Wheeler

Girls' Swimming Club

The Girls' Swimming Club, which was first organized in the spring of 1927, now has twenty-five members. The girls work on learning to swim and in improving the art of diivng, life saving and special swimming stunts.

At the initiation each new member is given a badge which she is allowed to keep after having been an active member for three months. A gold "W" is awarded for special achievements such as swimming long distances, perfection of stroke and life saving. Several of the girls have their emblems, and Mary Louise Clawson, Dorothy McClelland, and Barbara Flannigan have their Junior Life Saving Certificates.

Girls' Basketball

Wenatchee High School has a girls' basketball team to be proud of. For three years they have held the county championship, with only one defeat chalked against their record, and it came when one of the first string girls was out of the game. This year's schedule follows:

Wenatchee 31—Manson 10

The W. H. S. girls started out a successful season by defeating the Manson sextet in an easy game with a score of 31 to 10.

Wenatchee 33—Leavenworth 25

After fighting one of their hardest games, the Purple and Gold team came home from Leavenworth on the long end of a score of 33 to 25.

Wenatchee 44—Manson 23

Owing to a slippery floor the girls had difficulty in keeping on their feet in the return game at Manson, and their opponents advanced their score above that of the Panther girls, for a while.

Wenatchee 18—Entiat 20

The only defeat of the season was chalked up against the W. H. S. stellar players when Entiat won by a two point margin of 20 to 18, at Entiat. Wenatchee missed her first string girl, Dorothy McClelland, who was out of the game.

Wenatchee 38—Waterville 12 .

After a hard game the night before, Wenatchee went on the floor and gave Waterville a 38 to 12 beating. Several substitutions were made by Coach Humphrey

Wenatchee 30—Cashmere 22

The annual visit to Cashmere was made, and the girls came home with one more victory on their list by defeating their rivals 30 to 22.

Wenatchee 32—Leavenworth 11

The return Leavenworth game started out a bit surprising, but the W. H. S. players soon pulled away to a safe distance, and won 32 to 11.

Wenatchee 44—Alumni 11

The local girls defeated the "has-beens" in a one-sided game, 44 to 11. Five girls from the champion team of '26 went on the floor to fall at the hands of the younger players. Lack of practice seemed to hinder the alumni.

Wenatchee 25—Waterville 18

Arriving at their place of combat one hour after their game was scheduled, the basketeers went on the floor, and let Waterville take a 11 to 1 lead. Wenatchee came out on top, however, with a 25-18 score.

Wenatchee 24—Cashmere 18

The game with Cashmere at Wenatchee was one of the closest refereed games that local fans have ever witnessed. Several players were put out on fouls, but in spite of this, the local girls won 24 to 18.

Wenatchee 24—Entiat 19

The victors of Wenatchee's only defeat came down to win again. Their plans were sadly upset when they were defeated 24 to 19.

Wenatchee 23—Skykomish 15

The first team that Wenatchee played outside of her district went back home with the short end of the 23 to 15 score. Skykomish had a good reputation in her district, but not so good as Wenatchee's, seemingly.

The girls' team is not only county champions, but also the North Central District title holders. Wenatchee won from Brewster, and Wilson Creek from Waterville. Then W. H. S. played Wilson Creek, winning from the sextette by a score of 30 to 11. This was the first time that games were played to settle the right of any school to be called district champions.

Miss Ethel Humphrey has coached the team for three years, and has made a team worth speaking of. More girls have been turning out for basketball than before, and the competition is strong, thus making it harder to get on the first squad.

The girls' team will lose Virginia Justice at guard, Irene Jagla at forward, Vera Mae Shafford at center, Oral Manning, Carmyn Linville and Ruth Barnhill, substitutes, this spring.

Girls' Track

Girls' track is a new sport in W. H. S., being started last spring. More girls are interested in track than any other spring sport. The girls expect to start working out earlier this year and have more meets.

The girls' interclass meet, May 1, was won by the sophomores with 29 points. The frosh were second with 9 points, the juniors third with 7, and the seniors made 6.

The Wenatchee girls won the first Chelan County meet ever held, with 56 points, on May 13. The trophies won by Wenatchee have to be won three consecutive years before they become the permanent possession of any school.

Girls' Tennis

This is another new girls' sport in the Wenatchee High School. Tennis was first started in the spring of '26, but not actively taken interest in until last spring. There was a large turnout of girls, forty-one in all, of which thirty-six were beginners. The girls had regular classes twice a week at the Recreation Park. A small fee was charged to pay the city for the use of the city courts.

More girls are expected to turn out this spring, as there are to be courts at the high school. These courts are now under construction. The girls of W. H. S. showed a fine interest in this sport.

Gold "W" Club

The Gold "W" Club, which was first organized in the spring of 1927, consists of all girl winners of high school letters.

It is a rule of the club to contribute one project each year for the benefit of the high school. This year's project was the ten large pennants, made by the girls, in colors of the high school's opponents on the gridiron. The banners were put up at the football games to signify where each high school was to sit. These were turned over to the Purple "W" Club, to be taken care of and put up when needed.

The girls also sold car stickers with a schedule of the 1927 football games on them.

There are five members now in the club. They are Irene Jagla, Emelia Jagla, Virginia Brown, Dorothy McClelland and Virginia Justice. Helen McCarter, Vera Mae Shafford and Ruth Barnhill were added for the basketball season.

The officers of the club are:

President ..... Irene Jagla
Vice-President ..... Virginia Justice
Secretary and Treasurer ..... Dorothy McClelland
Cabinet ..... Virginia Brown
B. of S. C. ..... Emelia Jagla

Miss Humphrey is the advisor of the club.

Confessions of a Trans-Pacific Flier

Don Olds

"Lucien Nevers dead! That makes me the last of the crew of the 'Husky' and gives me the right to tell the true story of our flight."

Here my grandfather paused and I, being a newspaper reporter, and knowing grandfather, knew that a human interest story was coming.

"In the fall of 1927—let's see, that was well nigh seventy years ago—I was a sophomore at the University of Washington, and three of us, Lucien, Julian, and myself, lived in the upstairs portion of a private home. One evening during a cold spell, I was starting the fire with some newspapers, when a headline caught my eye. It read:

FOUR COLLEGE STUDENTS SUICIDE

And in smaller print it stated that they had made a suicide pact to explore the "great beyond." I read it to the fellows as their names struck me as being queer. They were White, Greene, Blew and Brown, and Lucien said: 'I wonder what they found?'

"The three of us were orphans working our way through school, and had only ourselves to live for (I hadn't met your grandmother yet), so I said, 'Let's try it. We have gas here.'

"Lucien Nevers was very ambitious, but due to a sick spell, he had failed in all his subjects the previous quarter, and consequently was feeling blue. Therefore, he was in the right mood to accept a proposal of suicide, but Julian Valine was one who entered wholeheartedly into whatever he undertook to do. He could have graduated from high school in three and one-half years, but he took post-graduate for a year and a half ending with half a hundred credits, so we were not surprised when he said:

" 'Yes, and get one small paragraph on the stock report page of a newspaper. Not much! We're going to do this right. How much money have you got, Bert?' he asked me.

" 'I have about $10,000 coming from Liberty Bonds,' was my reply.

" 'And you, Lucien?'

" 'Well, I'm twenty-one next month, and I get the $8,000 Uncle Pierre left me.'

" 'I've got about $12,000 in the bank (that was like Julian). Now which would you fellows rather do, die by gas and get one measly paragraph or, say, enter this non-stop flight to Australia and 'accidentally' lose our bearings and get a headline on the first page of all the newspapers in the land?'

" 'Julian, you're a jewel!' Lucien exclaimed.

" 'When do we leave?' I asked.

" 'We'd better wait until the first part of November in order to strike summer below the equator,' he said. 'Are you sure that you want to go through with this?'

" 'You bet!' we both exclaimed at once.

"On the third of November we left Seattle in a Boeing seaplane. As you know, we had named it the 'Husky.' There was a large crowd of collegians lining the shore and crowded into every boat obtainable as we rose from Lake Washington.

"We had decided to fly south from California, passing over Easter Island. It was here that we had supposedly planned to turn west, but we had decided to continue poleward instead.

"As we passed over Easter Island, I experienced a pang of regret that we were not really planning to go to Australia, and as the miles sped along this pang increased until just as I was about to approach Lucien on the subject he shouted into my ear:

" 'Say, Bert, do you think there's any chance of reaching South America?'

" 'I don't know. Let's ask Julian.'

"This was done, and Julian replied that there was absolutely no chance.

"Lucien and I felt like mutiny, but we decided to ask him again, so I said:

" 'Julian, for God's sake, can't you at least try for South America?'

" 'No.'

" 'But we must be somewhere near it!'

" 'We are not.'

" 'Where are we then?'

" 'About 500 miles from Australia.'

" 'We're what?'

" 'About 499½ miles from Australia.'

" 'But——'

" 'Oh, I turned west at Easter Island. I knew you fellows would break sooner or later. What I can't figure out is how you stood it as long as you did. I broke about midway between Southern California and Easter Island, but I didn't tell you, because I knew you'd want to turn back eventually.'

" 'Do you think we can make it?'

" 'Barring accidents, and if the gas holds out, yes.'

"That last 500 miles was the longest half a thousand miles I've ever travelled, for not five minutes after my conversation with Julian, the oil pump broke down, and the next three hours (it seemed like six), Julian and I spelled each other pumping by hand. As it was, the motor coughed her last just within gliding distance of Brisbane, and it was due to what must have been a born ability of Julian's to fly, that we landed in the harbor there and were welcomed by the United States consul. I've told you how we were feted all over Australia, America and Europe for being the first to fly to Australia, but before we landed, we agreed that the suicide pact should be kept from the world until two of us three had entered the great beyond."

Wenatchee Valley Yesterday and Today

Virgil Estes

An Indian by his wigwam stood—
'Twas at the close of day—
And watched a dust cloud, soberly,
A mile or so away.
And as he quietly stood and gazed
He sorrowfully mused
On what that dust cloud meant to him,
And how he'd been abused.

That dust cloud meant the white man bold
Had entered his domain;
It meant his treasured hunting grounds
Were ruined and rent in twain.
The roaming buffalo he'd chase
Up hill, down dale, no more,
Nor would he stalk the wary deer
With crafty jungle lore.

The white man's axe would fell the trees,
His plow would till the soil,
And his beloved hunting grounds,
Be marked with strife and toil.
And he himself—his claims ignored—
Would then be cast afloat
And forced to find a home elsewhere
In regions more remote.

Half a century passed by—
His prophecy held true.
The white man cleared the forest
And built homes for me and you.
The soil was rich and brought him wealth
Beyond his fondest hope.
He was content, despite hardships
With which he had to cope.

And though he chased the savage
From his native hunting ground,
Yet, he is surely justified
In such an act renowned.
He generously provided
A home for him, in time;
He civilized the country,
Made it useful to mankind.

He found an earthly paradise
In this far Western clime.
He found the wholesome mountain air
A source of health, sublime.
Wenatchee Vale it's called today,
A place of wealth and joy,
Of grandeur, peace, and beauty rare,
And happiness without alloy.

The Schoolroom Alphabet of An Idle Gentleman

Jane Osborn

A is for Algebra—quantities 'n fractions,
Which I don't consider as merry distractions.
B is for books, which are heavy to pack,
And heavy to read from the front to the back.
C is for Chirography—writing, in fine;
There is no one but me can ever read mine.
D is for Domestic Science—for girls and such;
I really can't say I care for it much.
E is for Eraser; mine doesn't last long,
From rubbing out things I've written down wrong.
F is for Father, who comes home at night
And helps with my studies—and can't get them right.
G is for Geometry—facts, in fine,
About anything concerning an angle or line.
H is for Holidays when I am free;
They can't have too many of those days for me.
I is for ink which I get on my fingers,
And there it just lingers and lingers and lingers.
J is for June, when I'm rolling in clover,
Because all my studies for one year are over.
K is for kings whom I read of in history—
Why I must study that stuff is a mystery.
L is for Latin. No one should have it,
Yet always to my troubles my teacher does add it.
M is for Mother, who reads my report,
And always remarks: "It's a pretty poor sort."
N is for notes that I pass to my friends,
And notes to my folks the principal sends.
O is a mark which I often receive,
Although it means nothing—or so I believe.
P is for Principal, boss of the school,
I meet him whenever I've busted a rule.

Q is for Questions the teacher asks. She Knows all the answers, so why bother me.
R is for Rules, which are terribly plenty;
Whatever you do you break fifteen or twenty.
S is for Science; I yesterday found
You never can classify things by their sound.
T is for Teacher, who never is through
Thinking up lessons she wants me to do.
U is for Universe—yes, the Whole Show—
Chuck full of things they expect me to know.
V is Vacation I mentioned before—
We get quite a lot—I could use a lot more.
W —Whispering, a terrible crime!
For which I get spoken to time after time.
X for excuses which Mother must write
When I stop to play or get in a fight.
Y is for Yawns over lessons concerning
Whatever it is I'm supposed to be learning.
Z is for Zeal in my studies. I guess
In time I'll have more, for I couldn't have less.

On Making a Garden

JAMES KANE

Almost everyone has, at some time in his or her life, felt a strong desire to plant a garden. If you haven't already tried it, you probably will some day and you will be better off for some timely advice.

In the first place, where most people make a great mistake is in the selection of a place to make the garden. Instead of selecting the most likely looking spot, as most people do, pick the most unlikely looking place and save yourself a lot of disillusionment later on in the season after you have put much time and labor into the garden and get nothing out of it. When planting the garden, care must be taken not to bury the seeds so deeply that the chickens cannot get through, because they will not come up anyway. (Plant only the larger seeds, such as peas and beans, because they can be found more readily by the chickens.) The good gardener will not heedlessly step into the middle of a flower bed for fear of crushing some of the poor, defenseless, little worms and bugs that make the garden their home. If you catch a cutworm maliciously cutting down your only surviving plant, it is customary to place him on some hard, unyielding surface, such as a board, playfully place your thumb on his back and press. Under no other circumstances should the little creatures be molested or mistreated.

Another great mistake made by many people is to place the empty seed package on a stick and stand it in the bed so as to tell what should grow there. The best course to take is to destroy all of the packages and to forget as soon as possible what is planted in each plot. This will save considerable disappointment, if by any chance the garden should come up (very improbable) and you should find a lovely crop of garlic (odiferous magnificento) where you had supposedly planted sweet peas (ligum-inea sucreai). If you have destroyed the packages, it will be all the same to you. If such an unheard of thing should happen as for you to actually nurse some of your vegetables along to maturity, keep it to yourself, if you value your reputation.

MORAL: Better let well enough alone.

Apple Blossom Festival

During the time of year when the apple trees are in bloom and the orchards present a picture of exquisite loveliness with their pink and white blossoms, the festival of the blossoms occurs. Besides the opportunity of sharing the glory of blossom-time, Wenatchee offers many other unusual features at this spring festival. For months, committees plan a program that will assure the out-of-town visitor to Wenatchee something to do and see every minute.

The appearance of the whole town takes on an air of festivity. Wenatchee Avenue is a lane of springtime banners. Green, white and pink streamers, symbolical of the blossoms, and new life, are to be seen everywhere.

Probably the greatest feature in this spring fete is the parades. Surprise and delight are prevalent among the crowds who line the sidewalks from one end of the parade route to the other. The flowers, profusion of colors, banners and lights, are an inspiration to all who see them. There are hundreds of floats, most of which are of an advertising nature depicting the divers industries of North Central Washington. Last year the night parade was more than successful. It was an electrically lighted spectacle, and a pyrotechnical display of colors and lights.

For several years there was a pageant given, relating the history of the valley. This was one of the most unique and attractive productions put on during the festival.

Last year the Entiokachee, an organization of business men of North Central Washington, was formed to finance the festival, thus putting it on a permanent basis. With the help of this organization, this year's festival should be more successful than ever.

Wilma M.: "How do so many boys get killed in football games?"
Viola: "They kick off."

Walt: "Say, do you know the coldest man in history?"
Bill: "Naw, I don't."
Walt: "Michaelangelo, because he made a wall freize."

Helen: "What killed that aviator?"
Johnny: "A severe sinking spell."

A skunk and her four baby skunks were basking in the sun when a big old hound appeared. "Children," said the mother skunk. "Let us spray."

We know a halfback who is so lazy he sprinkles water on his letters to make them run.

Mrs. Woods: "Bob, give me a sentence with the word 'animus' in it."
Bob K.: "I have a bad headache an' I mus' go home."

Edna M.: "And why were you not here after last Wednesday, Robert?"
Bob.: "Well, on the envelope of the report card it said 'Return in five days.' "

Miss Humphrey (in Science Class): You, young man, give me some characteristics of oysters."
Frosh: "There isn't much to tell, 'cause oysters are very lazy."
Miss H.: "In what way?'
Frosh: "They're always found in beds."

Two Knights met on the outskirts of the battleground.
"I prithee, Xavier, couldst tell me where I can learn to write shorthand?"
"Certainly, Percival, but why cravest thou to learn?"
"Necessity, my dear comrade. I lost four fingers in yon battle."

"Pass your re-exam?"
"It was this way——'
"Neither did I; shake."

"I want some hot poppered butt corn—
I mean cot buttered hop corn--
That is, corn hottered pop butt, or rather hop cuttered pop born,
I mean—oh, well, gimme some peanuts."

Glen Connelly: "A lady came into our store the other day, threw a fit and we laid her on the counter. A moment afterwards, a cop came into the store and arrested her."
Mr. Moodhe: "What did he arrest her for?"
Connie: "Why, for counterfeiting, of course."

Ruby: "Did you ever hear Marion Talley?"
Bill: "No; you see, I never play bridge."

The only difference between the modern youth and Abraham Lincoln is the difference between burning the midnight oil on the table and in the tank.

Teacher: "Is the world flat or round?"
Clinton K.: "Neither, teacher."
Teacher: "Then what is it?"
Clint: "Crooked."

Miss Humphrey: "What insect lives on the least food?"
Art B.: "The moth—it eats holes."

Definition of Freshmen: Freshmen are small bodies of humanity entirely surrounded by ignorance.

Leahy (at drug store): "Gimme a comb without pyorrhoea."
Clerk: "What do you mean?"
Leahy: "One whose teeth won't fall out."

"That is a skyscraper," announced the guide.
"Old Lady: "Oh, my, I'd love to see it work."

"Miss Patton, where are all the old themes I handed in last semester?"
Miss Patton: "Sorry, but I don't keep old themes."
Disappointed Student: "But looky here, I've got to have them. I've sold them all to a Freshman."

It was the end of a scene; the heroine was starving.
"Bread," she cried. "Give me bread."
And then the curtain came down with a roll.

Walt sez: "You can make dishes out of China, but it will be a long time before you can plaster Paris."

Lawrence Keller: "How did you get that lump on your head?"
Jack Culp: "Oh, that's where a thought struck me."

Lillie: "I have so much correspondence, the letters are just rolling in."
Helen: "Huh, they must be circular letters."

Miss Selleck has kindly consented to give us her favorite recipe for corn. Here it is:

Each ear must be prepared separately. Soak in cement for two hours, and then paint well with LePage's glue. Lay aside in a cupboard for three weeks and serve with crowbars. Guests will derive much pleasure in trying to dislodge the kernels. Cobs may be afterwards sold to thugs for billies.

A goat ate all our other jokes,
And then began to run;
"I cannot stop," he softly said,
"I am so full of fun."
